TONIGHT'S COMPETITION

'Search for Sound' has attempted to find the best of the unexploited talent in this country today. Although manufactured 'pop' will always find a market the only lasting quality is real ability. All too often staying undiscovered and unappreciated. One of the sure ways of overcoming this problem is to run a competition. We did just that. More than 800 applicants, with musical aspirations that varied wildly, entered for the competition. This number was whittled down to around 400 who have actually taken part in heats at eight centres throughout the country. This mammoth knockout contest started last November. Tonight you will see and hear the results of the search, representing possibly the best musical talent in the country, not yet on record. The Judges have been invited by Fabulous Magazine and Pye Records as a truly representative and knowledgeable cross section of the entertainment world and the pop music scene in particular. The arrangements have been made for a system of impartial voting which will best decide the crucial question of tonight's competition winners.

● THE PRIZES

The winners receive a cheque from Silver Blades Ice Rinks Ltd. for £500, an immediate signing for a Pye Recording Contract and the 'Fabulous' Trophy.
Second Place winners receive £100.
Third Place winners receive £50.
Already more than £700 has been presented as prizes.

The winner will be chosen on an open marking system by a panel of six judges. Each judge will give marks out of a maximum total of ten, based on overall performance, the contestants with the highest total marks becoming the winners. Each group is allowed a maximum of fifteen minutes or four numbers — whichever is the shorter. In the event of a tie for any of the first three places, the contestants concerned will play one number of their own choice and the judges will mark them on the basis of that number.
